

Going to the playlist section now shows the newly created playlist on the page of playlists:

Selecting that playlist will bring all the selections into view:

You can now add all the files in the list by using the All Songs button or selecting individual files from the list. In this case I selected All:

In the left window you can also see buttons that can be used to modify the playlist.